++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Remaining settled and largely dry, with overnight frosts.

Today:
A cold and clear start, with sunshine through the morning. Patchy fair-weather cloud will develop in the afternoon, though sunny spells will remain. Dry throughout and feeling pleasant in the sun, helped by light winds. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
The patchy fair-weather cloud will clear through the evening leaving a dry night with widely clear skies and a widespread frost. Minimum temperature -4 deg C (25 deg F).

Friday:
Plenty of early sunshine on Friday before patchy cloud develops inland again. It should remain dry, with coastal areas receiving the most sunshine. Another clear and frosty night will follow. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Dry over the weekend, with sunny spells and light winds. Cloudier on Monday, with a slight chance of rain in the west. Daytime temperatures gradually rising but frosts possible overnight.
